

INDIANA PHILOSOPHICAL ASSOCIATION
Fall Meeting, November 3, 1956
MARIAN COLLEGE
Indianapolis

Social Gathering, with coffee 9:30-10:00 a.m. (Eastern Standard Time)

Morning Session for Senior and Junior Associations 10:00 a.m.-12:00 m.

"Dialectical Idealism in America: G. E. Mueller"
Eugene I. Dyche, Indiana State Teachers College

Awarding of Prizes for Junior Papers Vice-President Harris D. Erickson

"W.M. Urban's Reconciliation of Realism and Idealism"
Paul Pixler, Taylor University

Luncheon 12:30-1:15 p.m., Cafeteria

Business Meeting of the Senior Association 1:15 p.m., Cafeteria

Afternoon Session for the Senior Association 2:00-4:00 p.m.

"The Kantian Theory of Sense-Intuition: A Critique"
Sister M. Aloysius, S.S.J., Detroit, Michigan

"Toward a Philosophy of the City" Lawrence Haworth, Purdue University

Afternoon Session for the Junior Association 2:00-4:00 p.m.

First and Second Prize Papers to be announced

Indianapolis is on Eastern Standard Time

Marian College is located in the northwestern part of Indianapolis, at 3200 Cold Springs Road, a short distance north of W. 30th Street, about a half-mile west of the White River.

All sessions will be held in Clare Hall, the large building to the left of the main drive. Further directions will be given within.

The luncheon will be served in the cafeteria, cafeteria-style, at reasonable prices. A special section of tables will be reserved for our group.

N.B. #1: The enclosed reply cards for luncheon reservations should be in the mail by Wednesday evening, October 31.

N.B. #2: Mr. Stephens is trying to assemble and sort the records of the Association. He has found several very serious gaps. If you have anything pertaining to the Association at any time in its history which you would be willing to let him have, please bring it with you to the meeting.