

INDIANA PHILOSOPHICAL ASSOCIATION

FALL MEETING

November 3, 1973

at

THE ATHENAEUM CLUB

401 East Michigan Street
Indianapolis, Indiana

****

9:00AM Coffee and Doughnuts

10:00 Symposium: Problems in Teaching Introductory Philosophy Courses

(1) "Philosophical Conversations and the Introductory Course"

--Kenneth Kipnis, Purdue University

(2) "Goals and Methods in Teaching of 'Introduction to Philosophy'"

--Nani Rankin, Indiana University at Kokomo

(3) "Some Structural Problems in the Teaching of Philosophy"

--Michael Goldman, Miami University (Ohio)

12:00 Lunch. The Athenaeum Restaurant & Bar available for conferees.

1:00PM Business Meeting

2:15 1:30 "Lewis, Foundationalism, and Probabilities"

--Mark Pastin, Indiana University at Bloomington

Commentator: David Annis, Ball State University

2:30 "From Philosophy of Science to Philosophy of Technology"

--Edmund Byrne, Indiana University-Purdue University
at Indianapolis

Commentator: Jan Smucker, Hanover College

Sent individually to all faculty and graduate students in the State